Rather than absolute alterity or strangeness, the narrative of these parallel traditions is one of contact-familiarity and proximity, unexpected affinity and intimate strangers.

A Gamble of Faith

So ensure you phone is in a right shape to get the call, no room for voicemail or mistakes. She is also under no illusions about the potential and potentially vast distance between author and manuscript, admitting, for instance, that the appearance of polysyndeton in a given text may easily have been created by a scribal rather than an authorial preference for, and insertion of, conjunctions. Nonetheless, she makes a strong - because cautious - case for the definition of a recognizable style as characteristic of the authentic works of Andrea da Barberino, and, on that basis, sets out in subsequent chapters to determine several still controversial questions of attribution connected with his .
